CONTINUING EDUCATION TRAINING ON FEBRUARY 23, 2015

The First Annual Radon Stakeholders' Meeting will be held, February 24, 2015 from 9:00am-4:30 pm in Sacramento, California at the Cal EPA Office Building located at 1001 I Street, Sacramento, CA*. For more info on the CalEPA Building: <http://www.calepa.ca.gov/EPABldg/location.htm>

This meeting is being held at minimal cost, ($50.00 registration fee) for all those that have a stake in protecting the public from unnecessary exposure to radon in their homes, schools and businesses. Hosted by Cancer Survivors Against Radon (CanSAR), and the California State Radon Program with assistance from the US EPA Region 9 office, this meeting will bring interested stakeholders together to discuss common issues, provide insight into future radon risk reduction action, share perspectives, educate and network. This meeting will focus on radon risk reduction looking at the latest developments in housing policy and science. Speakers include internationally recognized radon experts, as well as representatives from the federal Housing and Urban Development Office and the US Environmental Protection Agency.

We invite the following to come and be a part of the discussions:

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Radon professionals• Affordable housing advocates• Housing authorities• Legislators• State Cancer Control Plan Staff	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Cancer and Radon Advocacy Groups• Nonprofit housing advocacy groups• Professional associations• Public agencies• Residential builders and developers
